

Do you love glitter, cotton balls & Preschoolers! Could you author a book called “101 Ways to Entertain a Toddler”? Are you good at helping others to learn how to connect with a preschool age child? The fpKIDS Team is seeking a highly-qualified individual that understands how to capture the attention of a preschool age child.

Is this you? Send your resume to ginam@faithpromise.org along with references. Here are some additional details:

Position Title: Preschool Programming Coordinator

Job Summary

The Preschool Programming Coordinator is a full-time position responsible for all aspects of the preschool weekend experience (nursery through pre-k). This position requires an individual to possess strong recruiting, shepherding, management and administrative skills. In addition to a solid understanding of the developmental stages of kids birth to 6 years old and the ability to translate that knowledge to workable training and tools that volunteers can use to connect scriptural truth to a Preschooler.

Primary Responsibilities

Responsibilities may include but not be limited to the following items:

- Serve as a member of the Children’s Ministry team for the development of a cohesive ministry that works to effectively partner and equip families of FPC.
- Provide structure, leadership and strategic planning for the growth of Preschool ministry at FPC
- Partner with the Volunteer Coordinator to equip, recruit, train and lead volunteers to fulfill the vision and values of FPC through children’s ministry
- Create an engaging preschool experience that sets the standard for all FPC campuses
- Work with the Director of Children’s Ministry to
 - create a multi-site structure to accommodate campus growth
 - create tools and resources to further equip & impact parents & families
 - plan & implement special events that create growth opportunities for parents and volunteers
- Perform all other duties assigned by the Director of Children’s Ministries